

Needs

Resources

Activities

Outputs

Outcomes

Short-term

Mid-term

Long-term

Money	Literature resources from MaM Project		Prizes and a Toolkit created and distributed to volunteers & landowners	Town Officials know where MaM is in their town, know the threats, have access to info to pass on and DO		MaM is confined to its 2007 extent
Coordination	Volunteers from public, groups and individuals	Outreach in media, newsletters, CCE
Liability Waivers or Insurance for volunteers	GIS/Property Tax Info		In Spring 2008 MaM Project provides a training session for training the trainers	A system is set up to monitor/control sites for 5-10 years		MaM is eradicated in Dutchess Co.
Property Info (addresses)	Lower Hudson PRISM	Community meetings		Property owners CHEMICALLY control MaM on their own property or allow professionals to help	MaM locations and extent are known in Dutchess Co.
Phone # and e-mail to report sightings	Information on herbicides and permits from DEC and others	Literature is distributed door-to-door, direct mail, public places, website	A Land Steward Pledge is developed for affected landowners	Property owners MECHANICALLY control MaM on their own property or allow volunteers to help
Decision on group use of herbicides	Mile-a-Minute Project of the Hudson Valley			Property owners and local residents that work and recreate in the outdoors can recognize and know how to report MaM
	NYS DOT and Utilities and RR	Increase signage, along trails, parks, trains and stations other public places	Block Party Weed Pulls
	IES and other Colleges
	CCE		MaM Monday or Throw it out Thursday
	Locations for known sites					